For North Carolina—Rain Wednesday and probably Thursday, colder Thursday, fresh south winds becoming variable.

Ties that bind—apron strings.

If a Federal or State official is irresponsibly ignorant or culpably negligent of his duty he is equally qualified to walk the plank.

In many respects President Roosevelt appeals to Southern predilections and in others he offends its prejudices. He appears really not to intend to do so in the latter instance.

President McCurdy, of the New York Mutual Life Insurance Company, stieks to it that he will not resign. This means that the family will go right on having three square meals a day.

When President Roosevelt gets back to Washington the government chauffeurs will no doubt seek a conference with him to induce him not to play the game so rough when he knocks them out of a job.

President Roosevelt declared in his speech at Roswell, Ga., that he is half Southern and half Northern. It was his Southern half which came to the front a few days ago and declared that he didn't believe in social equality.

Former Governor Hogg, of Texas, has sued the International and Great Northern Railway for $100,000, because a freight car was violently backed into a passenger coach and he was thrown out of his seat with such force as to wrench his neck. It is safe to predict that the railroad company won't send its cow lawyer to look after this Hogg case.

The High Point Enterprise says: "W. L. Smith, who left High Point two weeks or more ago to settle in the State of Idaho, has returned to his old home. Mr. Smith says the West is not the West of several years ago in the way of opportunities and that North Carolina is just as good a place as can be found in the union." If young North Carolinians are looking for opportunities they should come to eastern North Carolina and grow up with the country.

MRS. STRUTHERS DEAD.

Passed Away Yesterday Evening at Grists, N. C—Funeral There.

Many friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Struthers, widow of the late David Struthers, which occurred at 6 o'clock yesterday evening at the home of her son, Mr. William Struthers, at Grists, N. C. Mrs. Struthers was up and about the house until noon, when she complained of feeling unwell and retired to her room. She gradually became weaker in spite of all that could be done for her and she passed away peacefully as the shades of night began to appear. Mrs. Struthers was in the 85th year of her age and was greatly beloved by all who knew her. Her death will come as a shock to many friends in this city.

Mrs. Struthers was born in Scotland and would have reached her 85th year next January. She possessed all those strong characteristics of the Scotch people and cherished through her long and useful life a devotion to the Scottish traditions and precepts. She is survived by three sons, Mr. William Struthers and Mr. Hugh L. Struthers, of Grists, and Mr. James Struthers, who now resides in Cuba; also she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. A. Springer, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Springer are now in New York and until they can be heard from, no arrangements will be made as to the funeral. It will be held at Grists, however, and the remains will be laid to rest beside those of her lamented husband in the family burying ground there.

Mr. and Mrs. William Struthers, Jr., and Miss Hettie Struthers, of Wilmington, will go up to Grists on the 6 o'clock train this morning on account of the death of their grandmother.

North Carolina Sorosis.

The North Carolina Sorosis is engaged in an undertaking of immense value to Wilmington in its efforts to establish a practically free library. The library rooms are in the Odd Fellows' handsome new building, on Third and Princess streets, and the ladies already have the nucleus of 1,200 volumes towards a library which they aspire to make a credit to Wilmington. Certainly Sorosis deserves the commendation and hearty encouragement of the people of Wilmington and it can be given at a public reception which the ladies will give at the library rooms next Monday evening from 5 to 7:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be served, and while no charge for either admittance or dainties will be made, there will be contribution boxes for such voluntarily donations as any person may wish to make in either cash or books. A delightful evening is promised to all who attend the reception.

Hospital to Police Court.

When Rufus Davis appeared in the municipal court yesterday, he bore the scars of battle, having just been discharged from the hospital where a rent in the breast, inflicted with a knife, had been caught up by Dr. Akerman. Rufus was not before the court as a defendant but in the role of prosecutor and Carrie Stuart stood at the bar as the prosecuted. Rufus had been in the hands of the Philistines the night before, as was evident from his appearance, but just how, when and where he could not say for he confessed the mild impeachment of having been very drunk. The injured innocence of the female by his side so impressed itself on the court under the circumstances that she was forthwith reluctantly discharged.

M'CRAW TO RETRACT

Wife Visited Slayer of Her Mother in Jail and Made a Request of Him

ITS FULFILMENT PROMISED

Heart Bruised by Charges Contained in Letter Left by Her Husband, She Appeals to Him to Make Written Retraction.

Thos. A. McCraw, in jail charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Wright, has had only one caller since he was imprisoned ten days or two weeks ago. That one was his wife and the daughter of the good woman whom he slew upon the threshold of her home. Mrs. McCraw, her heart bruised by the terrible charges made against her mother in the letter left by McCraw, called at the jail to see her husband, since his senses have returned to him, would retract what was contained in the communication. It is reported upon good authority that McCraw told his wife that he knew not what he did when he wrote those letters and that he would willingly furnish her with a written retraction of everything he had said.

It is said further that McCraw is now at work on this retraction and that at the proper time, before court convenes, the communication will be furnished the press for publication.

McCraw denies knowledge of anything he said or did on that fateful morning at the Wright home and is said to regret more than words can express his terrible deed upon that occasion.

None of McCraw's people from Franklin county have been to see him and it is learned that no definite arrangements have been made by him for counsel to represent him at the trial. On the day that the coroner's inquest met to investigate the death, McCraw sent for Mr. Marsden Bellamy, but it is learned that Mr. Bellamy has not yet been retained. He counselled the prisoner not to talk, but beyond that his legal services were not tendered at the solicitation of the prisoner.

McCraw claims that his mind was a blank not only at the time he wrote the letters inveighing against his mother-in-law but also when he shot her that morning. Whether insane or crazed by drink or drug, his declaration that he knew not what he did, is regarded as most unusual in the light of the sequence of events both before and after the terrible tragedy.

LIGHT INFANTRY PROMOTIONS.

General Order No. 49 Published by Capt. Robertson—Property.

The office of first sergeant being vacant on account of resignation the following appointment and promotions were published in General Order No. 49, given out by Capt. Robertson, commanding, at the regular weekly drill of the Wilmington Light Infantry last night: First sergeant, George Davis, promoted; C. G. McMillen, second sergeant, promoted; S. C. Holmes Davis, third corporal, promoted; W. L. Walker, fourth corporal, promoted; A. C. Smith, fifth corporal, promoted; Neill Morse, sixth corporal, appointed.

Capt. Robertson appoints T. J. Gause as property sergeant to assist the First Sergeant in maintaining a record of the property of the company and to open an account with each member of the command as to the issuance of uniforms, supplies and arms.

REFORM COLORED YOUTH.

State Movement to Establish Reformatory For Criminal of Negro Race.

Rev. J. G. Willingham, of Faeytteville, commissioner for the parent conference of the State of North Carolina, will address the colored people of Wilmington in mass meeting at St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church tonight; the First Baptist (colored) to-morrow night, and the Mount Olive A. M. E. church Friday night. The object of the conference is to establish a reformatory for the criminal youth of the Negro race. Mr. E. A. Poe, of Fayetteville, has donated a site of 56 acres of land for the proposed reformatory and it now only remains for the colored people of the State to show their appreciation of the gift by erecting the necessary building. It is hoped that the meetings in this city will be well attended and that the colored people generally will be responsive to the appeals of Rev. Willingham, who is here in the interest of the work.

Governor's Prompt Action.

Yesterday's Raleigh Post says: "Governor Glenn heard a rumor yesterday evening that Bill Carter, a negro, was in jail at Kenansville for outraging a little white girl and a lynching was expected. The Governor had received no information from the Duplin county sheriff but he immediately wired to that official that the militia would be placed at his command if necessary, and a special term of court called if so desired. Last night the Duplin sheriff wired that the negro had been placed in the Goldsboro jail."

Died in New York.

Fred Stewart, the 21-year-old son of Henry Stewart, a well known colored resident of Wilmington, arrived last night from Brooklyn, N. Y., where his death occurred Saturday. The young colored man went to New York to live about three years ago and had been a resident there ever since. He leaves a wife and one child. The funeral will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from St. Luke's A. M. E. Z. church and the interment will be in Pine Forest cemetery.

QUARANTINES GO OFF TO-DAY

All Danger Having Passed Wilmington Again Opens Her Portals to the World, Without Question.

All danger of contagion having passed and the flow of travel having turned back South instead of away from the infected district, the yellow fever quarantine which Wilmington has maintained under strict regulations since the fifth of August, at an expense of something like $15 per day for guard service alone, will be lifted after to-day and visitors will be free to come to and go away from Wilmington to any point in the Union without regard to health certificates. The order for raising the quarantine was received last night from Mayor Waddell after communication with a majority of the members of the Wilmington Board of Health, who were of the opinion that all danger has passed and that the guards had as well be called in from the trains.

Capt. Robt. Green, the chief quarantine officer, breathed a sigh of relief when he communicated the information of the lifting of the quarantine to a reporter last night. Capt. Green has been most efficient in the discharge of his duties. He was always in perfect touch with the men on the trains, advised them in all cases of emergency, met hundreds of late trains and arranged and had executed under his supervision all the machinery of the quarantine from the day it was put on until the present. Capt. Green is not throwing any bouquets at himself, but he says he has had a hard time of it and is glad that it is all over and that the public has been protected from the terrible scourge. The public in turn bows to Capt. Green and his able assistants, for the men on the trains were all excellent officers, and thanks them for performing well a great public service.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Woods-Browning Company Repeating Its Success of Opening Night.

Rip-roaring farce comedy, the kind that tickles the risibles when the risibles almost refuse to be tickled, was the menu at the theatre last night, the Woods-Browning Stock Company having carried the audience before it on that clever vehicle of fun "A Hot Old Time." The situations were ludicrous, the comedy clean and snappy. The audience was abundantly well pleased.

To-night's bill will be one of the big royalty plays of the company, "The Northern Lights," the scenes being laid in Montana about the time of Custer's last charge. The story is not a blood-curdling one as the environment would seem to indicate, but the piece will be found to be elaborately staged, pure and wholesome. This afternoon the Woods-Browning people will offer a specialty matinee at which "Master and Man" will be given. The hour of the matinee is 3 o'clock. Popular prices will prevail.

First Baptist Meetings.

The series of revival services begun at the First Baptist church Sunday and give promise of much good in the community. The meetings are being well attended and the speakers are gaining a wonderful hold upon the people. The large chorus choir led by Mr. James H. Parrish, of Kentucky, is furnishing splendid and most inspiring music and Rev. J. C. Massee, of the Tabernacle Baptist church in Raleigh, is preaching with telling effect, nine accessions to the church membership having already been received. The meetings continue daily with services at 3:30 and 7:30 P. M. The public is cordially invited to attend the services and the good people of all denominations are asked to join in the movement which means so much for the betterment of the community.

Wilmington Furniture Company.

A certificate of incorporation for the Wilmington Furniture Company was received by the Clerk of the Superior Court yesterday. The incorporators are W. T. Mercer, E. S. Hancock, A. Rich, of Wilmington, and Henderson Cole, of Smithfield, N. C. The authorized capital stock is $125,000, but the company may begin on $14,000, which is subscribed in shares of $100 each as follows: W. T. Mercer, 50; E. S. Hancock, 30; A. Rich, 10, and Henderson Cole, 50. The corporation is formed to buy and sell, at wholesale and retail, furniture, household and kitchen furnishing goods, musical instruments, sewing machines, general merchandise, etc., and to manufacture mattresses and furniture of all kinds. The principal office will remain in this city.

Track Facilities In Fayetteville.

The Atlantic Coast Line, through Hon. Geo. M. Rose, attorney, has applied to the Fayetteville town council for permission to extend its passage or switch track in that city and to move its present main line to the west so as to give free and unobstructed passage for vehicles along Winslow street; also that passenger trains going North and South may be next to the depot and not on the track away from same as now. The permission is being resisted by the Raleigh and Southport railroad, which has already been granted a franchise to go down Winslow street and by certain property owners along the proposed route. The matter has been referred to the Railroad Committee for report to a full meeting of the Board of Aldermen.

Mrs. T. Frank Bell Dead.

Mrs. Mary A. Bell wife of T. Frank Bell well known in the city, died last night at 6:20 o'clock at the family home, No. 1121 Wright street, aged 55 years. Mrs. Bell is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Geo. W. Millis, Mrs. J. T. Brown and Miss Mattie Bell, and two sons. Messrs. Willie and Walter Bell. The funeral will be conducted from the family home at 3 o'clock this afternoon and the remains will be laid to rest in Bellevue cemetery.

DEFECT IN THE LAW?

ALDERMEN CALLED TO MEET

Will Consider the Matter With Question of Repair and Rebuilding of Sidewalks in Down Town Sections—A "Conference."

What some attorneys regard as a most serious defect in the new law with regard to the permanent improvement of the streets of the city has just been discovered. The alleged defect is hooted at by other attorneys with the same enthusiasm with which it is championed by those who persist that they have made the discovery. An unfortunate ambiguity of English is said to have occurred in drawing the act by which no street in the down-town sections can be paved and an assessment levied against the property owners for their pro rata share of the cost as now in vogue, unless these property owners petition for the same, while permanent improvements may be made to streets in the outlying districts and the pro rata cost of said work assessed against abutting property, regardless of petition.

The act was intended to operate just the reverse; that is, it intended to confer upon the Board of Aldermen of the city, the power to require down town streets paved, regardless of petition, while beyond certain prescribed limits no permanent improvements could be made and the pro rata share of the cost assessed against owners unless they asked for it. In drawing the act and prescribing the territory of compulsory improvement, it is said that the language of the act means exactly the reverse of what was intended. The defect was found by attorneys, who, it is understood, have been employed by certain parties who will resist the assessment for the Grace street paving. If such be the case, the contest will lead to numerous complications and an opportunity to remedy the defect will not present itself until the Legislature meets January a year hence.

However, it is claimed by other attorneys, that the point raised is a purely technical one and one that the courts would not construe otherwise than is the meaning of the act. It is pointed out that most any sentence of length in the English language may be distorted into other than its exact meaning and that the courts will only pass upon the reasonable and just view of the situation.

To consider the reported defect in the language of the act and for the purpose of taking some action in regard to the sidewalks of the city, the Board of Aldermen has been called to meet in conference at the City Hall to-morrow night. At the meeting it is expected that a legal opinion upon the language of the street law will be submitted and adopted and that steps will be taken at once to remedy the present deplorable condition of the sidewalks down town. Whether other matters will come up and whether the meeting will be a public one or not is not yet known.

The alleged defect in the street law is being very generally discussed in municipal circles and is known to have given some concern whether the point as to the language of the act is well taken or not.

EAGLES IN NEW HOME.

Lodge Room and Club Apartments Handsomely Furnished—Norfolk.

Carolina Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, met last night for the second time in its handsome new lodge room in the I. Shrier building, on North Front street. The occasion was one of felicitation for the aerie, which in addition to marking an important epoch in local F. O. E. history also marked the beginning of life of about a dozen promising eaglets, who were inducted into the order according to the amplified ceremonies of initiation of the order.

The lodge room is very handsomely furnished with large heavy, piano-polished oak and all other appurtenances necessary to an up-to-date F. O. E. assembly hall. The club rooms on the second floor are now being fitted up at great expense and wil be formally opened with an elaborate banquet in about a week or ten days. A handsome piano with pianola attachment has been purchased for the parlors and all arrangements are being made for a first class buffet service to members. A competent white steward will be engaged and the Eagles will cultivate in every way a club fellowship among its members.

Carolina Aerie is just now planning for a big trip to Norfolk on Thanksgiving Day to witnes the Carolina football game and to make an official visitation to the Virginia aerie in that city. It is probable that a large contingent of the Wilmington "high flyers" will soar over to Norfolk on that day and enjoy all that's coming their way.

Negro Slashed Last Night.

A negro giving his name as Chas. Anderson was carried to the hospital last night. He had a knife wound over the right eye and on the right wrist. If a tendon was severed in the wrist, the wound may be rather serjous, but otherwise the patient is all right. Anderson said last night about 10:30 o'clock he was standing at the fence at the rear of Mr. D. McEachern's residence, on Seventh street, talking to the colored cook. A white man came along, had some words with him and set upon him with a knife. No other particulars were learned from him and the police know nothing of the affair.

CAPT. DIVINE'S ESCAPE.

Run Down by Car on Front Street Yesterday Morning.

Friends of Capt. John F. Divine are congratulating him upon a narrow escape from serious injury by being run down by a city street car on North Front street yesterday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. Capt. Divine was on his way over to his office at Coast Line headquarters and was in the act of crossing the track when city car No. 21, in charge of Motorman B. C. Jones, under a low rate of speed, ran into him. Capt. Divine was caught on the fender and fell forward just about the time the car was coming to a standstill. Motorman Pete Merritt was on the car instructing the new motorman and picked Capt. Divine up as he fell. He was fortunately very little hurt and proceeded to his office with only a few slight bruises and, perhaps, a scratch or two.

The same car early yesterday afternoon on Front, between Grace and Walnut streets, ran into an ice delivery wagon. The damage was trifling.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 25.

TREMENDOUS BUSINESS ACTIVITY.

The tremendous productive capacity of this country was forcibly brought to notice in the interview given out by President Samuel Spencer, of the Southern Railway, at Washington, on Monday. Mr. Spencer was defining President Roosevelt's rate regulation speech at Raleigh, and stating the case from the standpoint of the railroads and those who have their capital invested in these great enterprises, he said:

"The importance of this consideration, not only to the railways, but the shippers as well, can be appreciated at this time when there is a car shortage all over the country, with freight congestion at many points. Despite the fact that the railways have been investing largely in extension and incurring enormous obligations for the purpose, their facilities are not equal for the traffic demands upon them. These increased expenditures still continue, and from the present outlook must continue for a long time."

The Star a few days ago anticipated Mr. Spencer in noting President Roosevelt's change of plans for regulating freight rates, but we do not call attention to this matter to refer to the rate question which is soon to be put forward more in detail and more intelligibly when Congress meets and the actual purport of the President's railroad measure is laid before the National Legislature. However, our purpose in this article is to supplement President Spencer's remarks with a marvelous statement going to show the inconceivabl activity and evident prosperity of the United States at this time. We refer to the following special dispatch sent from Chicago:

"The car situation on the western railroads has shown no material improvement during the past week, and nearly all classes of freight are moving subject to delay. The great movement of grain is mostly responsible for the present state of affairs, and up to the present writing there appears to be absolutely no relief in sight. All of the various trunk lines could use hundreds of additional cars if they were available, but officials say it is not at all probable that enough cars can be procured between now and the time the cold weather sets in to make any impression on the tremendous quantities of grain which will seek shipment between now and that time. The situation is quite without precedent. It is pointed out that never before in the history of the railroads did they possess as many cars and as much motive power as at the present, yet they are unable to handle the traffic they are called upon to carry.

"Several years ago, fair comparisons could be made with preceding years, because then there were not as many car builders nor as much business in the country and the railroads did not respond as liberally to the demands of shippers as at present, and the ordering of a few thousand cars at a time was something quite out of the ordinary. It took as long to get a few hundred cars in those days as it does a few thousand now. It was the same way concerning the purchase of locomotives, instead of turning out an average of more than one locomotive a day, one a week was considered extraordinary. Regardless of the fact that within the last few years there has been an extraordinary expansion in the car-building industry, it does not appear to have grown fast enough to meet the demand of the railroads. And regardless of the fact that the expansion of the railways within the same length of time has been almost beyond comprehension, they are unable to promptly fill the mission they were intended to. It is no fault of the railroads either. It is a well known fact that the managements and the officials of every large road have exerted every effort to meet exigencies like the present.

"Officials say that when it is taken into consideration what a tremendous task the railroads are called upon to perform it is no wonder they are swamped with business. They point to the fact that crops will grow faster than they can move them; that the mills of the country can produce faster than cars can be supplied in times of high prosperity and that the output of the mines is greater than can be promptly cared for. They ask students of the situation to stop and consider what it means to transport the output of a large steel mill—not all, but just one. If he looks into the situation carefully he will find that any one of the large mills will use hundreds and hundreds of cars daily, and as these mills are scattered all over the country, it can be readily seen where the cars go to. On the other hand, there is a tremendous demand for all kinds of merchandise, not only the products of our own mills, but those of foreign countries. Ocean vessels are pouring in many hundreds of tons of freight upon our railroads and our exporters are sending a vast tonnage of our manufactures and the products of our soil to other Nations. While this explanation goes a long way toward showing why the railroads are short of cars, it really does not hardly begin to show the extraordinary demand for rolling stock."

The Chicago dispatch goes on to say that traffic men and others say it is almost inconceivable what demand there is for goods. Special reference is made to activity in the West but all of us know that this tremendous business movement also prevails throughout the South. The fact is that there was never a time in the history of the United States when there was such great achievements in railroad, financial, commercial and agricultural activities. It all goes to impress us with the enormous productivity of the farms and industries of our great country. It is not out of place ot say that North Carolina occupies a very conspicuous place in the prosperity procession. The resources of the Tar Heel State respond to the great development with the best of them.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—We heard of a farmer the other day who brought his cotton to town and was offered 10.05 cents for it. He refused because he said he could not be a traitor to his association and sell for less than eleven cents. That's the spirit. If all farmers will display the spirit of this man they can get their demands easily.—Charlotte News.

—From all appearances the suicide of Cashier Clark of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny came very near catching the political gang that has been in the habit or using the State's money freely, "short." The "boys" are said to be rapidly paying up for fear of a scandalous exposure. The possibilities for political corruption in Pennsylvania seem to have no limit and are not confined, as some have been led to believe, to Philadelphia.—Chattanooga Times.

—The Industrial News is now dishing out Democratic campaign talk as the Republicans have it. The News says there will be a fierce fight for Senator Simmons' seat, the leading aspirant being ex-Governor Aycock, with Judge Walter Clark a good second. And Governor Glenn, it says, is laying plans to capture Senator Overman's seat, although Overman's term does not expire until March, 1909. His recent declaration for absolute prohibition in the State, is regarded as his first gun in the campaign for the Senatorship. He is certainly looking far ahead.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—The President is not quite consistent. In defending the dismissal-on-the-spot order he argues that no man fit to be in the cabinet would abuse the power conferred. But on the very next day he issues an order forbidding the cabinet officers to give news to newspaper correspondents, or to be seen consorting with them; hereafter all news of cabinet meetings will be given out by the faithful Loeb. This looks as if the President felt that he could not trust his cabinet officers to talk. We should think the President's muzzle would chafe some of the faces upon with it has been strapped.—New York Times.

—No public utterance by President Roosevelt on his present trip through the South has attracted more attention than that part of his Raleigh speech which dealt with Federal control of railroads. The importance of the subject was enough in itself to cause widespread interest, but this interest was heightened by the fact that the subject was one which the President had sometime before announced as of great importance. but one which his enemies had both claimed and hoped, without however, believing that the President had dropped as being too hot to handle. But if anything is too hot for Theodore Roosevelt to handle and handle with gloves off, we have so far failed to discover it.—Greensboro Industrial News.

CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

"I enjoyed good health until about two years ago when I noticed my back began to ache frequently; it became sore and lame, and headache soon added to my misery; also found that my general health diminished. I became thin and weak and nervous, having severe pains at regular intervals," writes Mrs. Augustus Emory, Treasurer New Century Club, 34 Dean Street (Roxbury), Boston, Mass. She continues: "My work which before had seemed an easy task soon seemed like a heavy burden. I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which several of my friends praised so highly. I felt relief within a week, my appetite came back, the pains gradually decreased and I enjoyed sound sleep. Within fourteen weeks I had completely recovered my health. I seemed built up anew, my pulse, which had been weak became normal, and new life animated my entire being. I gladly endorse your medicine."

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores weak and sick women to sound health, by curing the local womanly diseases which are generally responsible for the failure of the general health. A woman's entire being is centered in her womanly nature. When the delicate womanly organism is attacked by disease; when there is irregularity or a disagreeable drain; when inflammation burns and ulcers gnaw the general health will reflect the progress of disease, in increasing weakness, nervousness, backache, headache, loss of appetite and sleeplessness.

So sure of it is the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that they offer $500 reward for women who cannot be cured of Leucorrhea, Female weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

DIZZY?

Read This "A friend of mine suffered with backache, headache and dizzy spells, and seemed quite worn out from menstrual troubles," writes Miss G. N. Garrett, of Mayersville, Miss., "but she took Cardui by my advice and is now well."

Are you dizzy? Does your head swim? Do your eyes blur? Is your stomach sick? In women, these symptoms are often signs of disordered nervous system, or of liver or heart trouble, brought on by carelessness in regulating the menstrual functions. These functions are even more important to women than the bowel functions to either sex. Even if there is no stoppage, still, a gentle, cleansing, menstrual draught should be taken now and then—every doctor will tell you so. Otherwise the menstrual blood will decay inside you, and will be absorbed into your system, causing such pain and suffering as will make you lose all interest in life.

To cure yourself, take woman's best and safest remedy, menstrual cleanser, tonic and pain reliever, is the old, reliable, time-tested medicine, which, for over 70 years, has been a household word in America, viz:

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, Oct. 24.—The cotton market was very active and excited with sales estimated at nearly a million bales or a larger day's business than has been done since early last Winter. Prices had a strong early advance on predictions for a bullish census report which is expected at noon to morrow, but eased off later under realizing and closed barely steady, net 11 to 13 points higher. The opening was very strong at an advance of 11 to 31 points and all the active months sold 30 to 31 points net higher during the first few minutes on active covering of shorts and a continued demand from outside sources which was inspired by the excited advance abroad, and the report of the National Ginners' Association. Liverpool continued very firm after the local opening and closed at practically the top or a net gain of 20 to 22 English points, but the local market met very heavy realizing and while there was continued demand from shorts and fresh outside buyers, prices gradually eased off reaching the low point in the late trading when January sold at 10.49 against 10.70 on the call. The close was a little up from the lowest owing to reports of heavy rains in the central belt and higher spot markets. The weather report at midday was considered about as expected and seemed to have no special influence on the market.

Charleston, Oct. 24—Turpentine and rosin nothing doing

Yesterday in the Supreme Court of the United States leave was granted to the State of Georgia to file its bill of complaint in the proceeding against the Tennessee and Ducktown Copper Companies by means of which the State hopes to secure for its citizens relief from the effect of the fumes from the furnace smoke stacks of the companies, which are located in Ducktown near the inter-State line. A rule was also entered in these cases requiring the companies to show cause why the restraining order requested should not be issued.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Former Congressman John G. Shaw, of Fayetteville, is agitating a Scotch Colonial Society, whose object shall be to secure colonists from Scotland to settle in his section.

—Joe Forquerean, colored, has been arrested at South Boston, near Reidsville, on the charge of having assisted in wrecking passenger train No. 11, two miles south of that place August 29th.

—Lumberton Argus: Red Springs is making a record for the hospitality of its citizens. The meeting of the Synod there this week is one of many occasions on which the hospitality of that good town is exercised.

—Lumberton Argus: It is freely asserted that Sheriff McLeod was the most handsome, the most efficient, and the gayest marshal at the State Fair, also that he rode the finest horse. It is predicted that he will be the next chief marshal if he will be.

—E. C. Bowman & Co., of Birmingham, Ala., were on Monday awarded the contract to build a $100,000 hotel at Winston-Salem. There were five other bidders. The building committee decided to add twenty bed rooms to the original plan, making 128 in all.

—Clyde correspondence Asheville Citizen: Last week J. M. Osborne & Son shipped from this place 15 car loads of picked cattle, estimated at $15,000, to the Virginia market, where they will be stalled for awhile and exported. Local commission merchants ship on an average of two cars per day of potatoes, apples, etc., besides the chickens, eggs, butter, etc., that are shipped.

—A Greensboro dispatch on Monday says: It is learned that negotiations are pending for a settlement of the noted twenty-thousand-dollar libel suit of Col. W. H. Osborne vs. Col. M. T. Leach and the Raleigh News and Observer, and the matter will probably be adjusted by to-morrow. It is said that the terms of the settlement will be the withdrawal of the judgment of four thousand dollars, the amount awarded the plaintiff by a Guilford county jury recently, from which the defense appealed, and the payment of the costs by the defendants.

—Near Friendship, nine miles west of Winston-Salem, on the Winston branch line of the Southern Railway, the passenger train leaving Winston at 6 o'clock for Greensboro Sunday morning, ran into the rear of a freight train standing on the track. None of the passengers were hurt. A great many of the cars of the freight train were thrown from the track and smashed, and merchandise was scattered all around. It was a miracle that no one was killed, since the oncoming passenger train in the darkness ran at good speed into the freight, the track being torn up some distance by the wrecked and piled up freight cars. The explanation given of the accident is that the flagman of the freight who had been sent forward to notify the passenger train sat down and fell so sound asleep he failed even to hear it as it thundered by headed for the doomed freight train.

—A dispatch from Lurham on Monday says: A negro woman by the name of Delia Jenkins, aged about 50 years, met a horrible death in the Western part of the city late yesterday afternoon. She was burned in a fearful manner at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and death resulted at 6:15 o'clock last night. Her burns were such that a great deal of the skin on her body slipped off before death. The woman was using gasoline in a stove when there was a loud explosion and the woman was covered in flames. She ran to a bed, jumped up on it and covered up. The bed clothing caught fire, this fired the bed and the house was saved with trouble. The clothing on the bed made the fire such that the woman was simply roasted before she could be saved. It seems that there had been fire in the stove earlier that day, but that there was no fire when she opened it and began to prepare for a fire. Using the gasoline caused sufficient gas to ignite and the fearful results follow ed.

—Asheville correspondence on Monday: "If they don't treat me well, I'll break jail again," quietly said Bob Duncan, who effected the jail delivery here last Sunday, and who was recaptured in this city yesterday afternoon. "You haven't a jail in your State that will hold me," he said. "I have been through five of them, and can walk out of another. The jailer was so good to me at Hendersonville that I really hated to leave him, but I needed fresh air." Duncan talked with freedom and frankness of his escape and of his movements since. He has been to Hendersonville, Flat Rock, Tyron and South Carolina points, and returned here Saturday to see his little child. The officers were informed of his return and a watch was stationed at the house where the child was staying. Duncan's wife was acquitted of the charge of aiding in the jail delivery, but she is now in jail on a charge of perjury. Walter Nelson, the white boy, who was charged with aiding in the escape, has been convicted and sentenced to two years on the county chain gang for this crime, and is now serving the sentence.

Full of Tragic Meaning.

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough, that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At R. R. Bellamy, druggist; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

TRAGEDY IN WASHINGTON.

Man Shoots Wife of Another and Kills Himself.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, October 23.—Mary Frances Scheitlin, aged 35, the wife of Rudolph B. Scheitlin, an electrician at the navy yard, and William A. Botomy, aged 38, were found dead late this afternoon by the husband in the front room of the Scheitlin home. A revolver from which three shots had been fired was on the floor. Two shots hit the woman and the third the man. The discovery was made when the husband returned from work. The police believe that Botomy first shot the woman and then himself. Botomy had visited the house several times recently but had been warned by the husband to stay away. Scheitlin says he saw his wife last six days ago when she left him after a visit from Botomy.

HAPPY RESULTS.

Have Made Many Wilmington Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Wilmington citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough izens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Wilmington by Doan's Kidney Pills:

J. E. Bloodworth, residing at 30 South Front stret and employed at 123 Princess street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have proven to be a very valuable remedy and I believe I am safe in recommending them. My back and kidneys have given me great trouble. I thought I had rheumatism. I had saooting pains through my back and sides which often made me yell right out. If I stood, sat or lay down or kept in any one position for any length of time it was almost impossible for me to move on account of the great pain. I heard some one speak of Doan's Kidney Pills. and I sent down to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. They completely removed the pains. They are without doubt, a valuable remedy for backache."

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Special Trial Offer
THE MORNING STAR
At Reduced Rates
To New Subscribers

For the next sixty days will mail THE MORNING STAR to subscribers outside the city at the following reduced rates:

FOR ONE YEAR $4.00
FOR SIX MONTHS $2.00

Positively, no subscription will be taken at the reduced rates for a period less than six months. For one month the price will be, as heretofore, $1.25 for three months; or, fifty cents for one month.

This offer, as will be noted, is for a limited period only, and is made for the purpose of giving those who appreciate the value of a daily newspaper an opportunity to read the STAR for six months, or more, at a cost of about one and a quarter cents per copy, and then determine whether or not they will continue their subscription at the regular price.

No name will be entered on our books under this offer unless the order is accompanied with the cash.

While this proposition is made primarily to secure new subscribers, old subscribers outside the city may avail themselves of its advantages at the reduced rate provided they pay all arrearages and for not less than six months in advance.

On account of the heavy expense attached to our city circulation department this offer does not apply to city subscribers.

Sample copies mailed free to any address.

THE ISTHMIAN CANAL WORK

Engineer Randolph Declares Ships Will Sail Through In Ten Years—Will Employ 24,000.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, October 24.—Isham Randolph, one of the members of the board of consulting engineers for the Panama canal, has written a letter to Zina R. Carter, president of the sanitary district of Chicago, in which he discusses canal conditions. The Isthmian Canal Commission made the letter public today. Mr. Randolph says he expects the canal to be completed before 1915. The work of preparation he says is going on speedily and when the equipment is on hand and the organization perfected at least 24,000 men will be required on the canal. Much of the present labor is worthless because the demand is larger than the supply. The application of the 8-hour system to the canal he regards as a lamentable mistake and will add about 25 per cent. to the cost of labor. Mr. Randolph says the whole line is "cluttered up with abandoned French machinery," which cost about $30,000,000 and is now valueless. He declares that any statement foreshadowing the report of the consulting engineers "can be set down as the manufacture of newsmongers." Mr. Randolph has recently returned from a visit to Panama with other members of the board and his opinions are interesting and in view of the publication of the letter by the commission may be considered semi-official. In the course of his letter Mr. Randolph says:

"What we do know is that it can be done; that Americans can do it; and that in as short a time as so stupendous an undertaking can be put through. We do know that almost limitless resources await the demand of the builders; that the builders represent the highest grade of American engineering talent, led on by a man whose record of accomplishment is "but the earnest of the things that he shall do." Hence we may reasonably look for the passage of the great ocean freighters from the Caribbean to the Pacific before our calendars are headed 1915. How much before, this deponent sayeth not. This is no easy triumph, for the builders who must contend with and overcome difficulties not encountered in our temperate zone." Mr. Randolph speaks highly of the food provided for the workmen and says the hospitals are a just source of pride.

MR. ROOSEVELT AT TUSKEEGEE

Escorted By Fifteen Hundred Students of Booker T. Washington's Famous School

WAS DAY OF SPEECH-MAKING

President Spoke From Stand Made of Baled Cotton Worth $30,000—Visited Montgomery and Touched on Cotton Industry.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Tuskegee, Ala., October 24.—President Roosevelt arrived in Tuskegee at 8:30 o'clock this morning, his train being on time. The city was beutifully decorated. A number of arches, the foundations of which were made of bales of cotton had been erected and covered with bunting. The platform from which the President spoke to the people of the city was made from $30,000 worth of cotton in original bales. The President was met at his train by a reception committee among whom were Mayor O. S. Lewis and Dr. John Massey, president of the Alabama Conference Female College. Escorted by a company of State militia, the President was driven to the college, which represented a typical Southern scene. Cotton had been transplanted in long rows and two old Southern negroes with cotton pickers' sacks on their shoulders were engaged in picking the staple from the plants. Several baskets of cotton were scattered about the field. The President was greeted at the college grounds by the students and public school children. In his address at this college he spoke on good citizenship and what it takes to make a good man and a good woman.

At Booker Washington's School.

At the conclusion of his address the President left for Tuskegee institute. The President's train was brough directly into the grounds of the institute over its private track. The President was received by Principal Booker T. Washington and members of the institute board of trustees and faculty. He then entered a carriage made by the students of the school, drawn by horses raised at the school and driven by a student in the school uniform. The party proceeded immediately to an elaborately decorated stand, in front of the office building surmounted by the President's flag. From this point he viewed the educational and industrial parade upon the preparation of which the students and faculty have been at work for several weeks. This parade was headed by the institute band, led by Bandmaster Elbert B. Williams, of the Ninth United States Cavalry, who had been detailed to Tuskegee by the War Department. Then came 1,500 students of the school in two divisions, the young men uniformed in blue suits, with brass buttons, white gloves and cadet caps. The young women, wearing blue dresses trimmed with red braid and wearing blue straw braid hats, followed, each bearing a stalk of sugar cane topped with a cotton boll, all raised in the school's agricultural experiment station.

After the parade, exercises were held in the chapel. Booker T. Washington presented the President in the following words:

"In presenting our guests to the students, teachers and citizens, I must not omit to express the gratitude felt by the people of the Tuskegee Institute, by the people of both races in this section of Alabama, for the honor which has been conferred upon them. That the Chief Magistrate of our beloved republic of 80,000,000 people deemed it good and wise to include Tuskegee Institute in his trip through the South and spend a few hours seeing the work we are doing here, brings to the heart of every man and woman of our race in this country, a degree of encouragement and inspiration which it is impossible for any American citizen, not of our race, fully to appreciate."

Before beginning his speech, the President said he had no idea that he would be so deeply impressed and so deeply pleased as he had been. "While I have always stood for this institution," he continued, "now that I have seen it and realize as I had never realized by the descriptions of it, all it means, I will stand for it more than ever." The President then spoke at length.

Confederacy's First Capital.

Montgomery, Ala., October 24.—Amidst the booming of cannon, blowing of whistles and the cheering of many thousands of people, President Roosevelt arrived here promptly at noon from Tuskegee and became the guest of the people of the first capital of the Confederacy. The general reception committee was headed by Governor Jelks, Mayor Teague and Judge J. B. Gaston, who met the party. After a few preliminaries the parade moved from the depot. The patriotic sentiment of the people was expressed everywhere by the floating of flags and tri-colord bunting, and thousands of cheers went up as the President's carriage moved off from the union station followed by the civic and military parade. The route was through the principal streets to the capitol where a platform had been erected in front of the historic old building and within a few feet of the spot where Jefferson Davis took the oath of office as the first President of the Confederacy. The welcome to the President was cordial and enthusiastic. The President seemed pleased with his reception.

At th capitol the President was welcomed on behalf of the city by Congressman Wiley. Governor Jelks delivered the address of welcome for the State and introduced the President.

The President spoke briefly. He expressed appreciation of the hearty welcome, especially since it came from the first capitol of the Confederacy. He touched upon the building of the isthmian canal, and what it meant to the people of the South. The cotton question was also taken up by the President and he said it was one of the country's most important exports.

"I am glad to see so many children," said the President. "As you know I believe in children. I like your stock and want it kept up." The subjects touched upon by the President were civic pride, self-government and social duty.

Of cotton the President said: "The whole nation is concerned in the welfare of the cotton growers. It is not only important for Alabama and the rest of the Gulf States, it is important for the entire union, because it is the cotton crop which determines the balance of trade as being in favor of this nation. Whatever is the business of any part of this nation, the trade of the entire nation and the national government are bound to do everything possible in the interest of the cotton growers to preserve your markets, to do everything that can possibly be done to see that the demand for cotton, the natural demand for cotton abroad, is kept up, and is met here under fair conditions by our own people.

"Probably no State in this union is more interested in the building of what is to be the greatest engineering feat the world has yet seen, the building of the Ithmian canal. The cotton crop largely goes to Asia, and of course the canal greatly shortens the route. Our influence in the Orient must be kept at such a pitch that it will insure our being able to guarantee fair treatment to our merchants and manufactures in the markets of China. We must insist we must give fair treatment in return. I would demand that on ethical grounds alone I would demand it also on grounds of self interest."

Birmingham, Ala., 24.—President Roosevelt concluded a strenuous day in Alabama by a two-hours visit to Birmingham, where his reception in keeping with those given him at Montgomery and Tuskegee, was hearty and soul-stirring. His day began at 7 o'clock when the special train left Montgomery for Tuskegee. Visits to the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute and to the Methodist Female College, were crowded into a little less than two hours, and the noon hour had just arrived when the Executive stepped from his car in Montgomery. Here he spoke to a great throng under the shadow of the Confederacy's first capital and was on his way again sharply at 2 o'clock. A few minutes before 5, the President was the guest of Birmingham, and until his train left at 6:45 P. M., on the night run to Little Rock, the President was cheered at every turn. The day was unmarked by any special incidents saved at Birmingham. Here at the corner of Fifth avenue and Twentieth street, an intoxicated man in his excitement dropped a pistol from his pocket on the pavement. The President saw the incident and called the attention of officers to the man who was immediately arrested.

The President's train arrived in Birmingham promptly on time. Mayor George B. Ward, surrounded by a reception committee, delivered the formal address of welcome at the station and immediately afterward the party entered carriages and began the march to the Capitol Park, eight squares distant. The ovation to the President was continuous and he stood in his carriage the whole way, acknowledging the outbursts of enthusiasm.

A pretty incident at the close of the march was when the President asked the name of the lady riding at the side of his carriage. Miss Sammie Harris was sponsor for troop D., one of the local cavalry organizations. The President was introduced to her by Mayor Ward, and as he reached over to shake her hands he crowded the mayor. Excusing himself, he said: "I would run over a man any time to shake hands with a lady."

At Capitol Park under the glamor of thousands of electric lights, the party entered the speakers stand. General Rufus N. Rhodes, editor of the Birmingham News, welcomed the President on behalf of the citizens of Birmingham. He said:

"Birmingham, with joy and satisfaction, salutes its distinguished comrade in renown, the most remarkable personality of the age who bears with dignity and ease the burdens of his time, and with pluck, integrity, learning, and faith rushes to meet every problem and seize every opportunity, and boldly without protest or doubt, among plaudits of the universe, strides to the center of the world's stage." Great applause greeted the President as he arose to speak, and his speech was enthusiastically received by the thousands who heard him.

Following the President's speech, ex-Governor Joseph F. Johnson spoke in behalf of Camp Hardee, United Confederate Veterans, and presented to the President several young ladies, descendents of Confederate soldiers and sponsors and maids of honor, who presented to the President a badge from the camp. Mr. Roosevelt accepted it in an admirable speech.

From Capitol Park the party went to Third avenue and Twentieth street, and boarded a special electric train and proceeded to the Alabama State Fair grounds where he spoke.

BRYAN MEETS ADMIRAL TOGO.

Tokio, Oct. 24.—Noon.—Tokio's reception today to the officers and men from the combined fleet was a most notable affair. The day was extremely fine and the public enthusiasm was unparalelled. The procession moved from the Shimbashni railroad station at Uyeno park, along the crowded streets. The air was rent with thunderous cheers. Admiral Togo's carriage was profusely decorated with flowers and the public feeling toward him was next in warmth to that shown the Emperor.

William J. Bryan was present at the reception today in honor of Admiral Togo. The mayor introduced Mr. Bryan to the admiral. An exchange of cordial sentiments followed. The admiral was delighted at the unexpected presence of Mr. Bryan.

PRESS BUREAU FOR LAME DUCKS

NEWSPAPER MEN WELL PAID

Gave Correspondents Two Dollars Line to Wire Papers That His Testimony Was Favorably Received—Unblushing Effrontery.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New York, October 24.—At the session today of the legislative committee investigating the insurance companies, the affairs of the Mutual Life Insurance Company were under consideration and it was brought out that this company was paying for the dissemination throughout the country of representations of the investigation that were favorable to the company. Charles J. Smith, a newspaper man, was the witness. He is employed by the Mutual Life Insurance Company to do a large number of things, but a month ago was placed in charge of sending out these reports. Mr. Smith had vised a number of vouchers for the payment for this work and these aggregated $11,000 with other bills to come in. He thought the amount to date would reach $14,000.

Mr. Smith wrote the reports and submitted them to Allen Forman who owns the Telegraphic News Bureau and $1 a line was paid by the Mutual Life for service. Clippings from various papers about the country, including the Boston Herald, Florida Times-Union and Atlanta Constitution, were shown to the witness and identified as the dispatches he wrote and sent to Mr. Forman. These were sent to about one hundred papers, but Mr. Smith did not know whether the papers were paid for inserting them. In one dispatch Mr. Smith wrote that Mr. McCurdy's attitude on the stand made a distinctly favorable impression and for this he had to pay $2 per line. This he said was worth it.

Following Mr. Smith, Walter Sullivan, who has charge of the magazine advertising department, was called. He said the Mutual advertised in twelve magazines last year at a cost of $42,000. Advertising in insurance papers cost about $30,000 more but he could not tell whether the remainder of the account of $329,797, the amount charged up to advertising last year, was spent.

Earlier in the day Emory McClintock, the actuary of the Mutual Life, was no the stand. The entire early session of the day before reces was given over to his explanation of technical insurance. Mr. McClintock practically advocated no laws for the insurance companies, except a certain supervision to give the reports publicity. He thought the public could take care of themselves and that publicity was the best law. Asked how far this view was shared in official circles, he thought he was somewhat of a missionary along that line. Mr. McClintock was to have been on the stand in the afternoon session but during recess he was seized with a slight attack of vertigo to which he is subject. He will be called again tomorrow.

John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, was examined and when adjournment was taken this afternoon his testimony was unfinished. While lacking the startling features of the testimony of the other life insurance presidents who have testified, Mr. Hegeman's remarks and explanations were none the less interesting, especially his statement that $876,000 was given to the industrial policy holders of his company last year without any obligation whatever. Mr. Hegeman further said that in eight years his company had voluntarily given to the policy holders $8,000,000. This was in extended insurance, mortuary dividends and liberalized policies during epidemics, floods and fires. It was brought out that while the company carried collateral loans throughout the year, none appeared in the annual report on December 31. This was explained by the witness, who said that all collateral loans were transferred on the last day of the year to Vermilye & Co., the bankers, under an agreement and were bought back again in January. This was done, according to the witness to avoid the horde of applications for call loans from the Wall street district. Mr. Hegeman did not encourage the call loan business for this section, because it entailed keeping a ticker in his office and he would not have one there. He further did not care to have his company known as a loaning company. The large loans at such a low interest as one and a half per cent. especially the one to President John A. McCall of the New York Life Insurance Company, were taken up, and Mr. Hegeman spoke strongly of his friendship for McCall who, he said, was closer than any other man to him in insurance, outside of his immediate associates. Mr. McCall had rendered him valuable service that was of benefit to the company and personally he thought the company could afford, and would have been justified in paying Mr. McCall the few hundred dollars the loans amounted to. The same was true, he said, of Silas B. Dutcher, a director of the company, who also carried large loans with the company at low interest.

RICHMOND PRINTERS' STRIKE.

Typothetae Prosecuted for Importing Alien Labor.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 24.—The latest move in the struggle for an 8-hour day between the local Tyopgraphical Union on the one hand and Richmond Typothetae or employing printers on the other, was made to-day in the United States Circuit Court when Thomas C. Gordon filed suit for Arthur W. Hargrove, a contracting printer, against Everett Waddey and every member of the Typothetae, $2,000 being demanded in each case. The suit charges violation of the United States statutes prohibiting the importation of alien contract labor, and names two persons who have allegedly been imported in violation of the law referred. In some quarters it is intimated that the suit is brought by friends of the defendants in order to prevent the brining of a suit by a person or persons really hostile to the employers.

TOOK THE TREATMENT AND SAVED HIS LIFE

Thirteen Years Ago Drank a Half-Gallon of Whiskey Every Day and Night.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

Thirteen years ago I went to the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C., and it saved my life. I took the treatment there, and may God bless the Keeley is my prayer forever. I will say that it costs $132 for the four week's treatment, and that it is the best investment of money that I have ever made in my life; for I never have wanted whiskey or beer from that day to this. I hope this letter may be the means of saving some poor drunkard like I was. When I went to Greensboro thirteen years ago I was drinking one-half gallon of whiskey every day and night, and I can say that I have never tasted it from the seventh day after I entered the Institute to this time. My cure I consider as complete. W. D. JONES,

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 31, 1905.

MR. FRANK B. CLYDE KILLED.

Horrible Death of Philadelphia Millionaire Yesterday.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.—Losing his balance as he was about to board a westbound train which was approaching the Fifty second street station of the Pennsylvania railroad today, B. Frank Clyde, vice president of the William P. Clyde Steamship Company, and millionaire clubman, was dragged under the wheels of the locomotive and instantly killed. His body was terribly mangled and his face was crushed beyond recognition, identification being made by means of a tailor's label on the clothing bearing Mr. Clyde's name. While the unfortunate man's body was being extricated from the forward truck of the car under which it had been wedged, Mrs. Clyde, unaware of the tragic ending of her husband's life, passed the scene of the accident on a train coming to this city from Bryn Mawr, a suburb, where Mr. Clyde was bound when he met his death. Mr. Clyde maintained a city residence, but spent much of his time at his country home where he had an extensive stock farm. He was 53 years old, and was married but three months ago to Mrs. Bloomfield McIlvaine.

FRANCE AND VENEZUELA.

United States Minister to Make Effort to Straighten Differences.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Caracas, Venezuelan, October 24.—The government at Washington has commissioned the American minister, Mr. Russell, to endeavor to arrange the Franco-Venezuelan diplomatic incident. Mr. Russell will go to Los Teques to-day and have an interview with President Castro.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Pending the result of Mr. Russell's interview with President Castro, the State Department will not discuss its nature. It should be understood, however, that he will continue his efforts to a possible assistance in the solution of the Taigny incident involving President Castro's alleged discourteous treatment of the French minister at Caracas. The Washington government feels that President Castro made a mistake in this matter.

At the French embassy the following authoriative statement was made:

"We are extremely happy to hear of the very kind intervention of the United States. And the news of the intervention seems to us all the better because it will, without any doubt, enable President Castro to realize the error made by his Minister of Foreign Affairs and probably will have the result that France shall not have to take recourse to such methods as she would dislike very much to use, but for which, in case of need, all preparations have been made."

AYCOCK SPEAKS IN BALTIMORE.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Baltimore, Oct. 24.—The local Democratic campaign was opened to-night with a meeting at the Lyric, which was jammed by an extremely enthusiastic audience which included an unusually large number of ladies. Ex-Governor Crarles B. Aycock, of North Carolina, was the chief speaker. Attacking the arguments of the opponents of the proposed disfranchisement amendment to the State constitution, he declared that only the negroes would lose their votes, that in his own State not a single white man had been deprived of the franchise, and he declared emphatically that if the amendment pass, no white man in Maryland would have his vote taken from him. "The truth is," he said, "that you cannot disfranchise the white man anywhere—except in the good old radical city of Philadelphia." Again, speaking from experience, he said, "Remove the negro and you remove bossism."

John P. Poe, of this city, the reputed author of the proposed amendment, also made an address.

Sewing Machine Demonstration.

Mr. W. T. Fitzpatrick, instructor and demonstrator for the Standard Sewing Machine Co. will be at Gaylord's Racket Store the entire week, exhibiting and giving free instructions in the use of sewing machines, doing hemming, felling, tucking, ruffling, hemstitching, embroidering and everything done on machines; in fact, those who have seen him so far, think it is simply marvellous what this gentleman can accomplish on a machine, doing that on a machine that the ordinary person can do with both the machine and by hand. All the ladies are especially invited, regardless of the machine they use, as the instruction given by him is applicable to most good machines, and no one can afford to lose this opportunity to learn something. Mr. Fitzpatrick will learn you to embroider on any machine free of charge. Persons using Standard machines are especially invited to come.

RIOT IN CHILIAN CITY

Fifty Killed and Five Hundred Wounded in Sunday and Monday Riots—Outrageous Vandalism.

Santiago, Chile., Oct. 24.—The disturbances here caused by the opposition of the people to the import tax on Argentine cattle continued all day yesterday and did not close until late last night when a small detachment of troops arrived here and a few shots were fired. The people of Santiago have just witnessed the most shameful occurrences in the city's existence. Almost everything which could be destroyed has been wrecked, including the city lamps, public monuments and windows everywhere. Several hundred arrests have been made. During the day more troops reached Santiago and with their arrival relative tranquility prevailed and the city is gradually assuming its normal condition. A bitter feeling prevails against the authorities. The outbreak is not considered to be political but is believed to be the work of rowdies who were encouraged by the absence of the troops at the manoeuvres. The police force was unable to cope with the rioters. The officials of the street railroads estimate the damage done to their property at about $250,000.

Buenos Ayres, Argentina. October 24.—A dispatch from Santiago, Chile, says that about 50 persons were killed and 500 wounded during the recent rioting there. It is hoped that order will be restored today.

Durham Man Will Direct Business From Prison Cell—Corporations.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., October 24.—Governor Glenn declines to pardon W. R. Murray, the Durham man who killed his uncle, J. S. Murray, in November last, and was sentenced to two years on the roads, but he changes the sentence to imprisonment on account of the condition of the prisoner's leg as it would be unusual torture for him to labor on the public roads. Murray is making arrangements to conduct his business from his prison cell, drawing his salary as president and directing the business of the music company, of which he is the principal owner.

Murray will continue to draw his salary as president of the furniture concern; will be furnished daily duplicates of all contracts, etc., made by his firm, and will direct the business from his cell, keeping a duplicate set of books.
